

The A.H. Riise “NON PLUS ULTRA Black Edition” is an exquisite blend made from the best distillates from distilleries in the West Indian and Central America. We dare say, that this is our master blender’s “piece de resistance” – his ultimate creation. Everything from the faceted carafe, to the deep mahogany glow and the full tasting experience leaves nothing left to chance. The name “Black Edition” is owed to the distillates that have experienced a further cask finish using special charred oak casks, making this a truly sublime treat for connoisseurs.

“NON PLUS ULTRA” means ‘nothing further beyond’ in Latin. It is an expression said to have been used by Charles V, who was both Roman Emperor and the King of Spain. The legend also states that it was engraved on the Pillars of Hercules, as a warning to mark the boundary between the known and unknown world in the Strait of Gibraltar. A.H. Riise “NON PLUS ULTRA Black Edition” is likewise found on the border between the known and unknown; only the very best drops from aged rum barrels are used to create this ultimate spirit drink.

The A.H. Riise “NON PLUS ULTRA Black Edition” is part of the NON PLUS ULTRA trinity of which we are very proud. Be sure to also try its two ‘brothers’, “NON PLUS ULTRA Very Rare” and “NON PLUS ULTRA Ambre d’Or Excellence”. ■
